A Dedication

*Your Clairvoyant . . .
Dedicated to you . . .
And where you went . . .
And what you did . . .*

*We challenge you
To Love, to Live,
To take what fate
The gods may give.*

An aerial, black and white photograph of a coastline. The image shows a wide, sandy beach curving along the edge of the ocean. Waves are breaking in a series of parallel lines, creating white foam that contrasts with the darker water. The sky is dark and overcast, with some lighter patches where clouds are thinner. The overall mood is dramatic and serene.

ACADEMICS

Principal and His Office Staff

Mr. Osborne, our new principal, has proven himself quite capable of directing our new system.

Many of the responsibilities of the new system have been eased by the help of Mrs. McCallum.

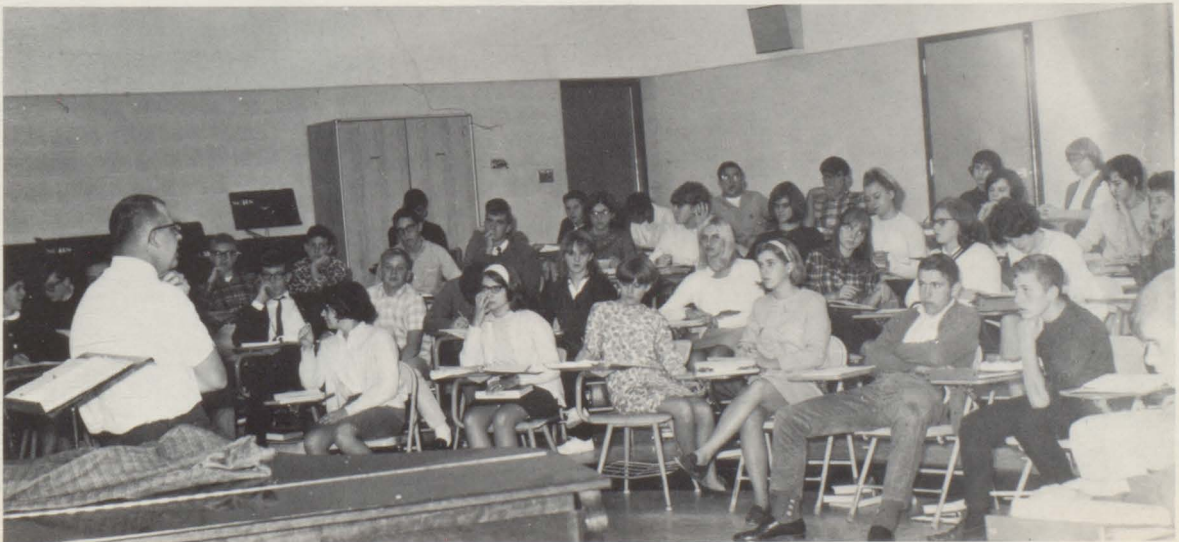

Mrs. Zoeplitz was an invaluable asset to our system.

Math and Science

Mr. Buell, Miss Okoren, Mr. Barber, and Mrs. Gremmer hold a departmental meeting.

Mr. Buell, Mr. VanDeusen, Mr. Huston, and Mr. Lake compose the science department.

Language Arts

Miss Lusty, who left after the first semester . . .

. . . and her replacement, Mrs. Willmarth.

Social Studies and Business Education

Mr. Anderson, Mr. Cornish, and Mr. Goulding view a film for their social studies classes.

Mr. Tharrett, Mrs. Snyder, and Mr. Stablein are the important members of the bustling business education department.

. . . and Mrs. Green who also left after the first semester.

Homemaking and Agriculture

Miss Wilson, Mrs. Paajanen, and Mrs. Thompson form a complete and capable homemaking staff.

Sewing is only one of the many activities involved in being a good homemaker.

Mr. Mayer and Mr. Post are our agriculture and conservation teachers.

Art and Music

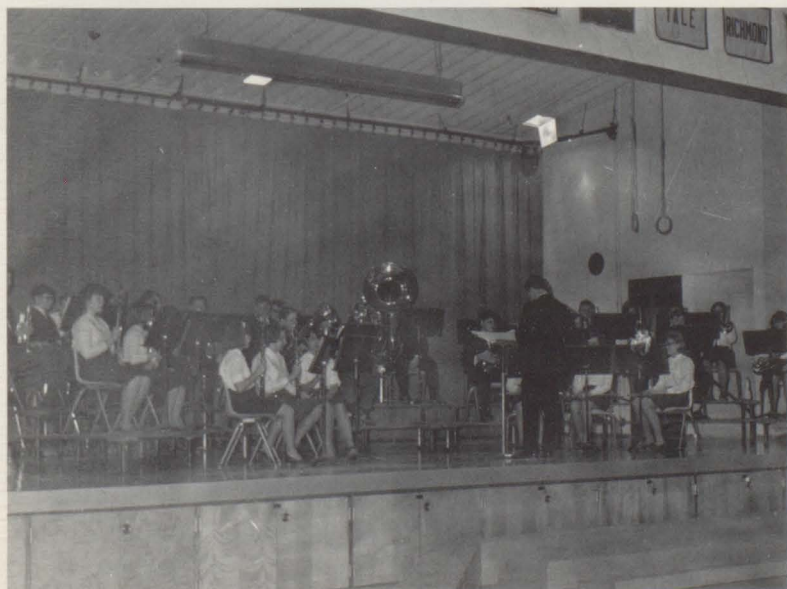

Mrs. Perret aids students with their art projects.

Mrs. Hurley

Mr. Scarff

Mr. Marier who replaced Mrs. Hurley and Mr. Scarff after the first semester.

Industrial Arts and Physical Education

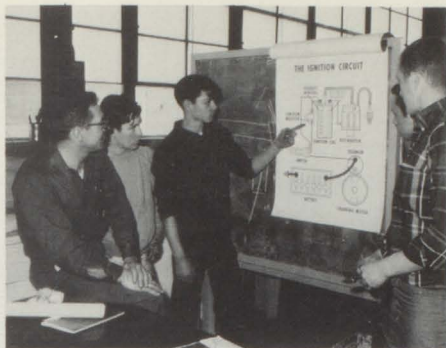

Mr. Alley, Mr. Hessenthaler, and Mr. Irvin discuss the recent developments in industrial arts.

One of the many activities of Miss McKenna is to keep informed on the latest advancements in the field of physical education.

Mr. Watt checks over his classes for prospective basketball stars.

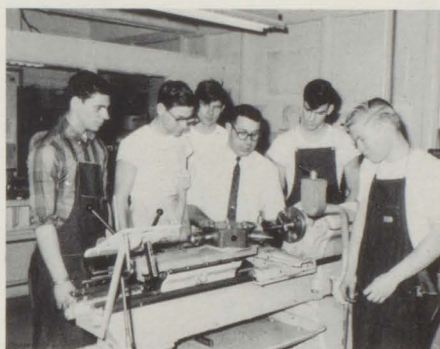

Vocational Trades and Co-Op

Mr. Hayes' auto-mechanics class, in St. Clair.

Electronics class with Mr. Potter, in Algonac.

Machine shop in Marysville is taught by Mr. DenUyl.

Jim Coleman, hard at work at Prior's.

Roger Lukasak is busy working at Dick Darling's Construction.

Behind the counter at C-Jerry's with Cheri LaBelle.

The program is organized by Mr. Findley, our Co-op Coordinator.

Some of Our Most Important People

Janice Lough, Brenda Meier, and Pam Leusby aid Miss Murray with work in the library.

Our Counselors:

Mrs. Chaput

Mr. Vincent

Pete McLeod, Mr. Bryson, and Mr. Schwartz make up the daytime custodial staff.

Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. Thomson keep our school in perfect condition.

What would we ever do without our cooks, Mrs. Bigger, Mrs. Richter, Mrs. Brenner, and Mrs. Mitchell.

C. Solgot, R. Klaski, and B. Thomson make up the night custodial staff.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council and Foreign Exchange

Student Council at work handling student affairs.

Officers of the school;
FROM LEFT TO RIGHT:
Debbie Bohs, Treasurer;
Diana Gallagher, Secretary; Dee Hyslop, Vice-President; and Mike Gallagher, President.

From Brazil came Ella Costa.

To Europe this year will be: Seated: Emily Chaput to Switzerland; JoAnn Rourke to Holland; Barb Ewart to Denmark; Linda Gerrits to Spain; Lawana Baumgarten to Germany; Jack Stubbs to Ireland; and Ellen Lyden to Hol-land.

Band and Majorettes

The band has participated actively in many musical events in the past year.

The majorettes, a new addition to the band this year, were a colorful prelude to the band.

Canadian Exchange

The purpose of the Canadian Exchange Program is to promote understanding between Canada and the United States. In addition, tolerance for people who do things differently is taught. It is also the desire of those associated with the program that the school systems involved become acquainted and therefore learn the difficulties and problems of the other. The program started by the Rotary Clubs of London, Ontario and St. Clair, Michigan.

Slim and Trim

A club formed for personal improvement of our young ladies.

Weightlifting

A club which stresses strengthening and building the body.

Square Dancing and High Boosters

The Square Dancing Club is an opportunity for students to participate in an enjoyable recreational activity.

The High Boosters have helped to instill school spirit in the student body.

Drama-Puppetry and Forensics

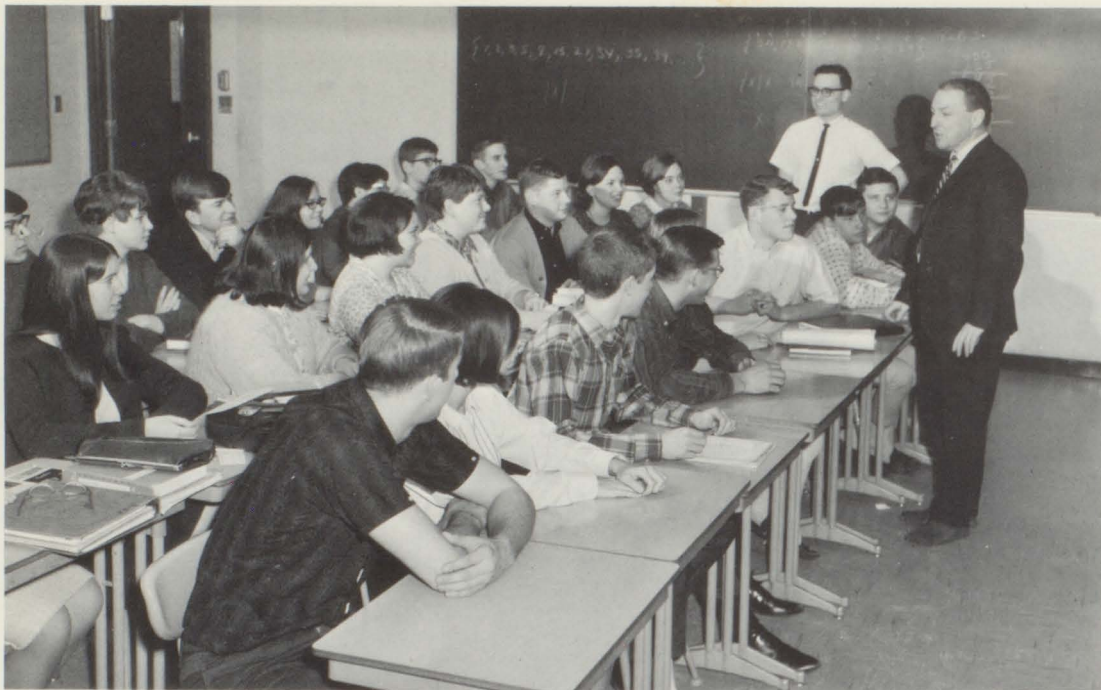

Drama and Puppetry provides an opportunity for students to participate in play production.

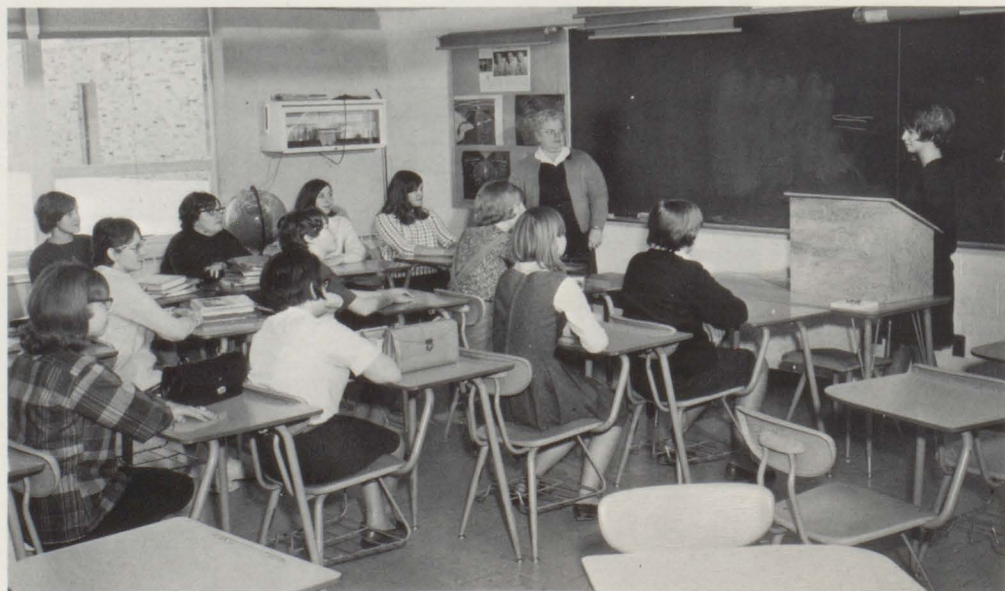

Forensics Club enables a student to develop skill in the art of speaking.

Future Teachers and Future Nurses

Future Teachers Association is for those who wish to specialize in the field of education.

Future Nurses Association offers a first-hand opportunity for information about a nursing career.

Future Homemakers and Future Farmers

The Future Homemakers of America meet to discuss one of their many projects.

The Future Farmers become familiar with the importance of agriculture in our modern society.

Science-Math and Great Books

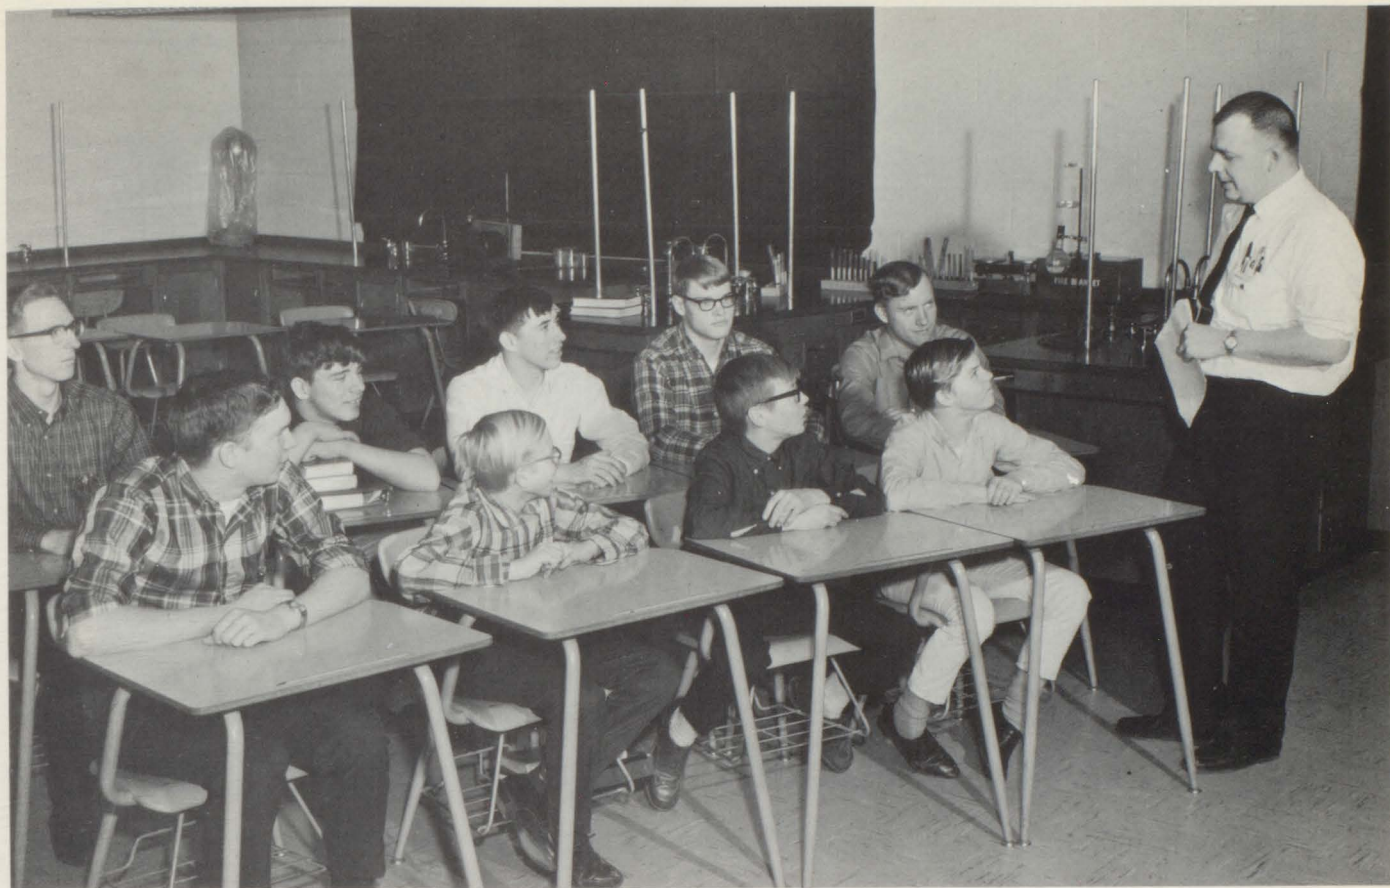

The Science and Math Club enables students to further their research into the fields of mathematics and the sciences.

The Great Books Club allows students to broaden their scope of literary analysis.

Audubon and Gymnastics

The Audubon Club teaches the students to understand the interrelationships among all living things.

The members of Girls and Boys Gymnastics combine fun with physical fitness.

Young Republicans and Spanish

Young Republicans is a group which enables students to better understand political processes.

The Spanish Club is organized to enlarge student interest in Spain and the Spanish language.

Audio-Visual and Photography

The Audio-Visual Club has been a great help this year to both teachers and students.

The Photography Club is a group famous for their photography and their Chicken Man dances.

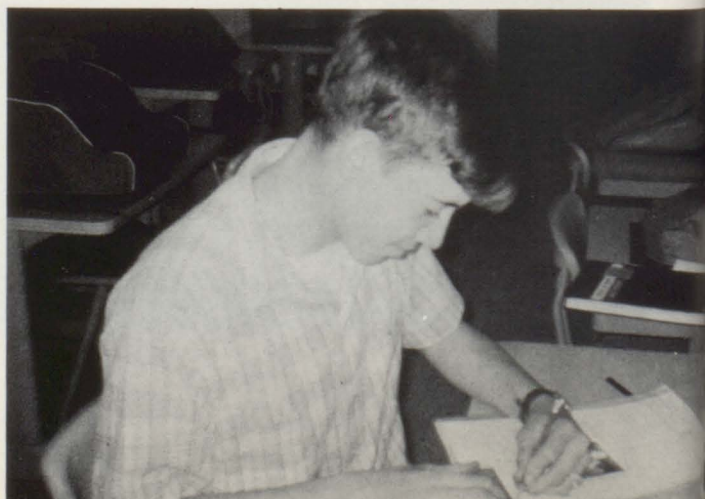

The advisors, Mr. Tharrett and Mr. Mallwitz, discuss plans for the layout of the yearbook with the co-editors, Patti Tual and Mary Beth Moore.

The Clairvoyant work room was often the scene of seeming confusion.

Kathy MacIntosh and Jacque Metz finish typing some printed materials for the yearbook.

Duane Schunk draws some of the ad pages for which he was responsible.

Graduation

One of the graduating Seniors to receive a diploma.

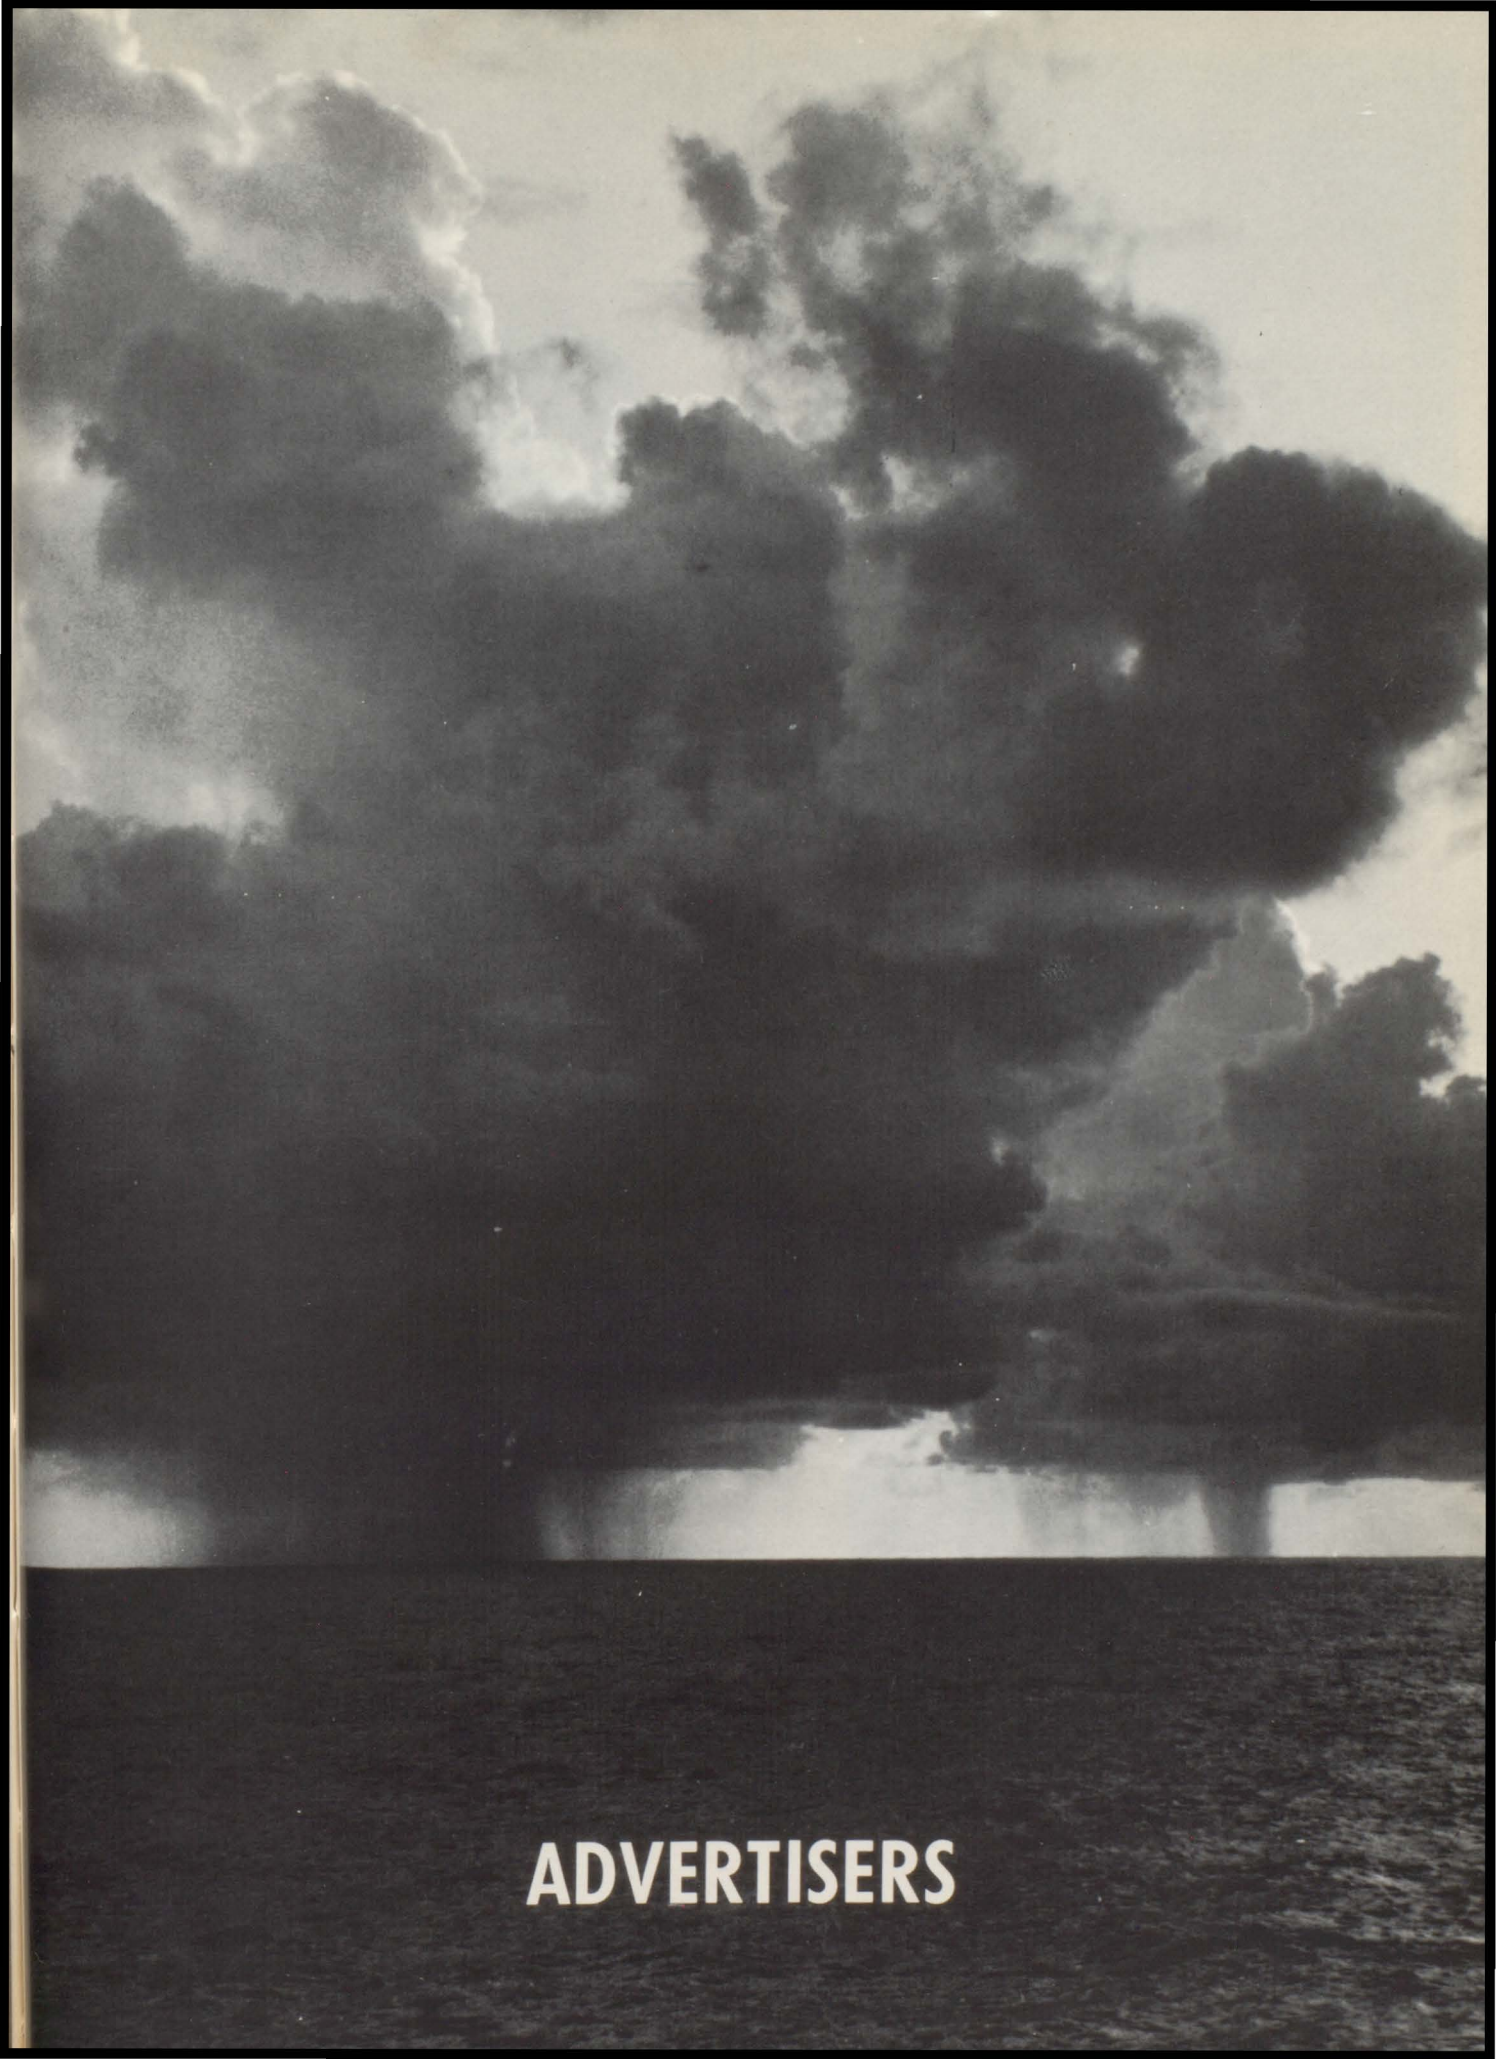

Some of the Seniors immediately after they have received their diplomas.

This is not the end.
It is not even the beginning of the end.
It is rather the end
of the beginning.
